SUMMER RESEARCH

Scholars apply to conduct summer research at other institutions. Because these programs are designed for students planning to pursue a graduate degree, the application process is often modeled after graduate school applications, and the programs are used to provide insight into graduate life. Below are the scholars selected to conduct research at other institutions.

Gabriela Aquino
Psychology
University of Notre Dame.

Rebecca Gurrola
Mathematics & Physics
Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN

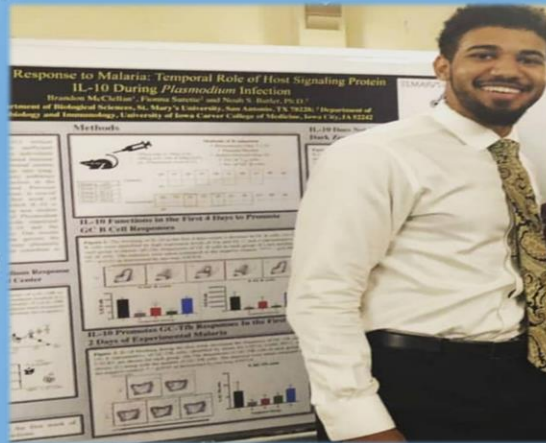

Brandon McClellan
Biochemistry
University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA

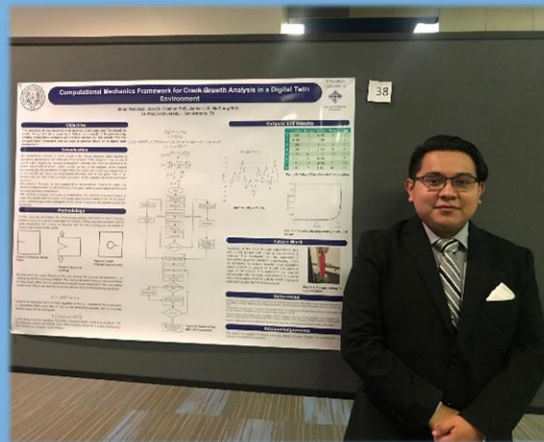

Ximena Mondragon
Political Science
KIPP, Chicago, IL

PRESENTATIONS

After completing their summer research, scholars are encouraged to present their findings at conferences. At conferences, scholars present to professionals across disciplines and receive feedback about their research and presentation skills. Below are our scholars who traveled to present during fall 2018.

Brandon McClellan
ABRCMS
Indianapolis, IN

Brian Mendoza
SHPE National Convention
Cleveland, OH
